PREFACE

The Bud Powell Real Book is a collection of 44 compositions written by the great jazz pianist, Bud Powell. These works, representing almost all of Bud Powell's original music, have been painstakingly transcribed from the pianist/composer's recordings by pianist Dr. Bob Hinz, and arranged in lead sheet format.

Some of the features include indications of chord variations and substitutions during the head and improvised sections, as well as separate solo-section chord changes when the chords used for improvisation differ from those used with the melody. Chord voicings are included in cases where they are an essential part of the arrangement.

In the foreword of Francis Paudras's biography of Bud Powell, Dance of the Infidels, the great jazz pianist Bill Evans remarks, "If I had to choose one single musician for his artistic integrity, for the incomparable originality of his creation and the grandeur of his work, it would be Bud Powell. He was in a class by himself."
